Health Stamp Is '58 Canada Best

Canada's 1958 Health Stamp, featuring the portrait of a pretty nurse took top place by comfortable margins in both the votes-for-first and overall points systems of reckoning, in a recent contest. The event was staged by Stan Shantz, stamp column editor of the London (Ont., Canada) "Free Press".

The final tally of points, figured on the basis of one point for a first place vote, two for second and so on was as follows:

1-Health	2,718
2-Oil Centennial	3,154
3-Explorer	3,246
4-B.C. Centennial	3,570
5-Resp. Gov't.	3,722
6-Quebec	4,668
7-Press Freedom	4,756
8-IGY	5,054

There was an overwhelming preference for the Health Stamp, although the Oil Centennial stamp was in first place for a time during the early tabulation. After the Health stamp poll participants had a hard time deciding preference for the next four stamps.

Placing of the sixth and seventh stamps was not settled until the final day.

The tally of first place votes produces almost the same result as the overall count. It shows: Health 232, Oil 188, Explorer 158, Responsible Government 121, B.C. Centennial 69, Press Freedom 37, Quebec 36 and IGY 17.

What conclusions are to be drawn from the result? First of all, the new medium size stamps meet with general favor; those issued in 1958 placed one, two in the poll.

Secondly, bright colors are wanted; the first four stamps all had bright colors and the stamps which lagged in the poll without exception had dull or drab coloring; thirdly, small size stamps are not wanted, the only one which appeared in 1958 was the poll.

Three Philippine Pairs Mark Malolos Constitution, National Flag, Liberation Anniversary

Three pairs of stamps have been scheduled for release by the Philippine Islands between January 21 and February 8, according to a Bureau of Posts announcement. A set of 6c apple green and 20c red was issued on the first date, in conjunction with the 60th anniversary celebration of the proclamation of the Malolos Constitution. An overprinted 1c on 5c stamp was issued suddenly January 11, as both a regular and official.

The Malolos adhesives show the official seal of the Province of Bulacan; editions are 2 million of the 6c, one million of the 20c. First day services, including both a cachet and special cancellation, were provided for the occasion.

Bulacan, a famous province just north of Manila, had been the center of the resistance movement during the Spanish, British and American invasions. Many important historical events took place in the province, among which were the signing of the famous Pact of Biac-na-Bato and the proclamation of Philippine Independence in Barasoain Church. This church which was also the seat of the Malolos Congress is shown at the middle of the seal.

A second twosome, this time overprinted on the Veterans semi-postal issue, will appear February 3, coinciding with the 14th anniversary of the liberation of Manila from the Japanese forces. The 2c plus 2c will be surcharged 1c, and the 4c plus 4c, 2c. The low value will be in an edition of 2,640,000 and the other, 1,700,000.

Finally, two stamps will be issued February 8 in conjunction with celebrating the anniversary of the 1935 approval by the Constitutional Convention of the Philippine Constitution. Values will be 6c and 20c, both in red, blue and gold in sheets of 50. Editions will be ten and five million, respectively. No provisions (Continued on page 19)

Fiscal 1958 Report Discloses Actual Progress And Further Planning In Bettering Service

Widespread advances in the conception of automation as it does, and may further, apply to the handling of the mails, and actual installations and usage of numerous examples of such equipment during the fiscal year 1958 (July 1, 1957-June 30, 1958) have made a favorable mark on the United States Post Office Department's operations, according to Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

This opinion was included in the PMG's summary of the year's operation of the biggest business in the world, the U. S. Post Office. These factors, together with other postal improvements of the period, he continued, are helping lay the groundwork for the postal service of the future.

Among the highlights of the fiscal 1958 report are the following concerning automation:

1. Two prototype automatic mail "culling" (separating various sizes of mail) machines were delivered in fiscal 1958. One was installed in a post office for operating tests with "live mail", and the other underwent initial tests in the contractor's laboratory. The machines have considerable promise, although improvements in the final design will be made before production units are ordered.

Two prototype facing and canceling machines were completed and tests begun in the contractor's laboratories.

2. A pilot model semiautomatic facing and canceling machine was successfully tested in the Washington post office. Culled letters are manually fed into the pockets of an attached table and enter the machine in mixed handfuls or batches; photocells locate the stamps and actuate the canceling heads. In all, 24 machines of this type and 16 batching tables are scheduled for installation in fiscal 1959.

Two small prototype semiautomatic keyboard controlled facing and canceling machines are being designed and constructed for experimental use in smaller post offices working a volume of from 30,000 to 70,000 letters per day. These machines "key" individual letters according to the location of the stamp or flap of the envelope into position for automatic cancellation.

3. An automatic letter pre-sorter, to separate electronically "readable" from "nonreadable" letters, was built and laboratory tested. Contract work continued on improving the completely automatic sorting machine for reading typed and printed letter addresses.

Priority was given to improving the accurate reading of capital letters, reading through window envelopes, and reading script. Plans have been completed to design and construct a transistorized unit with increased capacity for storing recognition criteria, a new optical system, and an automatic feeder, with capacity to sort to 30 separations.

4. The Department, after long negotiation, has developed plans which will enable a private firm to immediately buy a building site and construct, equip, and maintain a completely mechanized, modern "turnkey" postal facility for operation by the Department on a rental basis. It is hoped that important new thinking in automated postal facilities will result from this method of enlisting industry's aid.

5. Obligations incurred for capital and research projects increased from $43.7 million in 1957 to $89.1 million in 1958.

Continuing in its exposition of the developments of the 12 months' period, the report disclosed other pertinent facts, some modest, others of considerable importance, but all impinging on the mail service picture and combining to throw it more sharply into focus in the public eye. A sampling of these salient points shows that mail service has been extended recently to 1,577,336 additional American families and 109,516 business concerns according to the newly issued "1958 Annual Report of the Postmaster General for the year ending June 30, 1958. In more detail:

1. 3965 new city delivery routes were established during the twelve-month period, including city delivery service for the first time in 141 communities.

2. Annual mail volume increased to 60.13 billion pieces, compared with 59.07 billion in fiscal 1957.

3. Net postal revenues were $2.55 billion in fiscal '58, compared with $2.50 billion in fiscal '57.

4. First-class mail pieces (primarily letters) totaled 32.22 billion in 1958, compared with 31.56 billion in 1957.

5. Postal inspectors were responsible for a record 8284 arrests for postal violations in 1958, 940 more than in the previous year.

6. Mail frauds hit an all time high, despite a conviction rate of 98.7 per cent of persons brought to trial for postal crimes. Mail frauds have risen to the point where they are causing an "annual loss to the American public in excess of $100 million," Mr. Summerfield noted.

7. The first American postage stamps were printed at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing on the new Giori Press, capable of printing stamps in three colors in one operation. Further, postage stamp sales to collectors soared at the Philatelic Sales Agency in Washington, totaling $2,375,052 for '58, compared with $1,990,911 in fiscal '57.

8. The Post Office Department in fiscal 1958 laid the groundwork for maximum use of jet airmail with establishment of a new Joint Sub-

New Delta Service
Savannah-Charleston

Delta Air Lines on February 1 inaugurated service from Savannah, Ga. to Charleston, S. C. over a new route segment authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board in the Great Lakes Southeast Service Case.
Delta has been serving both Savannah and Charleston on Route 54, but Charleston was formerly a "stub end" on a branch of this route. The CAB closed the gap between Savannah and Charleston so that Delta may now serve both of these cities on the same flight.

Flight 356 now leaves Savannah at 12:20 p.m. EST and arrives Charleston at 1:02 p.m. EST. (There will be no service in the other direction at this time.)

Delta also points out that covers which were submitted earlier for cachets commemorating the inauguration of service through Toledo on Route 54 are still being held. The airline has no plans in the foreseeable future to inaugurate service through Toledo over this route, and those covers which were submitted to Delta's Office of Information Services in Atlanta were dispatched, instead, on the Savannah-Charleston flight.

Other collectors desiring the Savannah - Charleston cachet were permitted to send addressed, airmail-stamped covers to Delta Air Lines, Information Services, Atlanta Airport, Atlanta, Ga., for servicing.
Advance notice, however, was too short for general publication of the provision.

HPO Urged For
Bangor-Portland

Economy measures taken by many railroads during the past few years have often resulted in dropping trains which, while poor in passenger revenue, were vital to the transportation of public mails. The most recent such example, according to the Highway Post Office planning Committee of the Portland, Maine branch of the National Postal Transportation Assn. developed on January 18.

A recent edition of the Bangor
"Daily News" discloses that on January 18, railway post office service on the Rockland and Portland run was reduced by 50 per cent and it is planned to discontinue all service within a few months. Unless a highway post office route is established, there will be even more serious delays in the delivery of mail for the cities and towns served by the Rockland and Portland railway post office, the committee warned.

A survey of coastal mail service has been completed resulting in recommending two daily round trips of a highway post office between Bangor and Portland as a substitute for the railway post office which will cease operating when passenger train service on the Rockland Branch of the Maine Central Railroad is discontinued.

According to June R. Champlin of Rockland, who conducted the survey, two round trips would be made by the highway postal office daily except Sunday between Bangor and Portland by way of Bucksport, Belfast and Rockland.

The service would cover 142 miles with 21 post offices served directly and 39 indirectly. Two postal transportation clerks would handle the sorting along the way. Estimated cost of the service is $130,000 as compared with the cost of $160,000 for the present arrangement.

acknowledgment souvenir.

One who reported the signals was Egon E. Lasus of Toledo, Ohio. In due time he received under cover a red, yellow and blue post card depicting sputnik and the October 4, 1957 date, with further details, (all in Russian) on the reverse. The card itself is not franked, but the cover bears a recent commemorative with a neat philatelic cancellation.

Fox Valley Stamp And Coin Show March 7-8

The Fox Valley Stamp and Coin
Club, Aurora, Ill., has set March 7-8 for its spring exhibition and bourse. The display will number 100 or more frames of stamps, and a large showing of coins and currency.

Arrangements are being made to secure outstanding collections to be shown in a court of honor. Cacheted envelopes will be prepared to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the first fast mail to the west.

Collectors desiring to exhibit may write Ashton Humiston, P. O. Box 929, Aurora, Ill.

POD Supplement For Descriptive Booklet

The Post Office Department will shortly issue a supplement to its popular "Postage Stamps of the United States 1847-1957", embracing only those stamps issued during 1958, according to Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. In addition to the illustration and description of these stamps, there will be tables showing the quantities ordered, plate numbers used, designers and engravers, and numbers of first day covers canceled.

Issuance of such a supplement will prove a boon to those who already have the 248-page booklet released early in 1958. The date this supplement will become available, and the price, will be announced later.
Copies of "Postage Stamps of the United States, 1847-1957" are available from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., at $1.00 each.

The Philatelic Sales Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25,
D. C., has announced a further service to collectors and dealers.
This will be the addition of embossed envelopes to the Agency list.
It is not known when this particular service will become available, but an announcement of what material will be stocked, and how it will be sold, will be made as early as practicable.

An Outrageous Situation

A few weeks ago a stamp dealer sent me a lot of seven large-size approval books from which all of the stamps had been removed except about 10% of what was originally in them. In all my years in the stamp collecting field I have never seen anything which equals this mess of approval books for outrageous prices on the cheap stamps included. If this is a sample of what stamp dealers who cater to the juvenile or beginner trade are carrying on through the United States mails, then it is high time for the United States Post Office Department to put a special agent to work to round up some of these highwaymen and put them behind bars.

GEORGE W. LINN

We know that there are stamp dealers, catering to the juvenile and beginner trade, who are reputable and honorable, and to them we would say that we believe it is an obligation on their part that they take some steps to stop the kind of dealers we are referring to in this editorial. To send out such approval books as we have before us is nothing short of murder, murder of the inclination and desire of someone to collect stamps. Certainly when the victims of this dealer find out what has been done to them they will be fully justified in shunning all stamp dealers and all stamp collectors. For if reputable dealers in stamps operate and permit shysters like the ones we are referring to also operate in the same field, it is time something was done. Certainly if one dealer can sell stamps catalogued at 3c for from 75c to one dollar and get away with it, what is going to be thought of all dealers in this same line of trade?

Here are a few examples of what is offered of these approval books: Argentina Scott No. 96, Cat. 3c, priced at $1.75 and numbered 4; Chile, the 10c No. 61, Cat. 20c, priced at $2 and listed as No. 45; Austria, 10kr. No. 55, listed as No. 196, and priced at $1.25, catalogues 3c; France, No. 199, Catalogued at 8c, listed as No. C53 and priced at $3.75.

There are dozens of other stamps priced at from two to ten times or more than what they are catalogued, yet the front of the approval book is marked with a rubber stamp which reads as follows:

"DISCONTINUED APPROVAL BOOKS. TAKE ANYTHING AT 1/4 OF MARKED PRICES. MARKED PRICES ARE CATALOG VALUES."

There is no possibility that these outrageous price markings are the result of substitution of stamps while the books may have been in circulation. There is positively no evidence of substitution. It is simply and solely a matter of a deliberate attempt at misrepresentation and fraud.

We recommend that dealers who cater to this type of trade form a small close organization, recognizing only those who come up to certain standards in their method of dealing and then quietly police the rest to watch and see that dealers of this type are trapped and driven out of business. I am sure any reputable dealer will agree with me that this is what should be done to the company which has put these books in circulation.

I have always maintained that unsolicited approvals were not the bad part of unsolicited approvals. The bad part is the overpriced, faked and damaged material marked at far more than it is worth. That is the bad part of unsolicited approvals.

We are keeping these approval books in event any clean stamp dealers are interested in seeing what competition they have.

A Boon To The Stamp Trade

In past years the H. E. Harris & Co. of Boston has worked along with many different business firms in which stamps were used as a means of promoting interest in their products. A few weeks back we advised you that a big stamp collecting promotion scheme was in the making. Stamps are to be used in this advertising campaign in a much more spectacular way than ever before. By the time this is in print thousands of stores and supermarkets all over the country should be showing big poster reproductions of postage stamps in their natural colors. Can labels and paper packages will picture postage stamps. It is to be the biggest promotional campaign in which stamps play a big part that has ever been put on in this country or in any other country. Upward of $300,000 is being spent for advertising and promotional work. It should make a boom in the stamp trade that will be greater than any other thing that has ever been done to pep it up. Watch for it and follow up with your own publicity for more business.

Getting Tired Of Complaints

Seems there is not a week goes by but what I get two or three letters from collectors who have ordered something from a dealer, paid cash and then complain that they can not get their order filled. Some of these are about requests sent two, three or more months ago and not yet filled. One concerns UN stamps ordered from a dealer in Vermont, from an ad in our paper of November 10 amounting to $9.53. The lady just can not get the dealer to send her the stamps. This is material any dealer can get at any time yet after two months, the order is not filled. Would you blame such people if they just threw up their hands and quit collecting stamps? We get lots of similar complaints and I have to write letters and tell the people what to do. Now I am going to print what to do as I am tired of writing letters and no dealer has any legitimate excuse for handling his customers in that manner.

If you can not get a dealer to fill your order or refund your money in a reasonable time all you need do is to address a letter as follows:

U. S. POST OFFICE
c/o (Postmaster, in the town in which the dealer lives).

In your letter state the situation fully, state what you ordered, when you ordered it, how you paid for it, and then charge the dealer with attempted fraud through the mails. You are fully justified in this for anyone who will not send the goods within a reasonable time, or write and explain the cause for delay, or make a refund if he can not fill the order, can be accused of fraud for he has made no effort to deliver or to satisfy you and you are justified in making charges against him. After the charges are made made wait about 10 days and if no results, write the P. O. Inspector again and be very firm and vigorous in your letter. This procedure if followed up will usually get results. No dealer ever need have such proceeding taken against him, all he has to do is to handle his customers in a decent manner.

We Thought This Was A Pretty Good One

"Mr. Linn:
"Thought you would like to know, following your original phrase, 'Look what they're GHANA do to you,' it has been decided 'TO GO for more suckers.'"

"Jack Wilson."

New Album Series By Country—Minkus

Austria, one of the most popular stamp collecting specialties, has been given the honor of being the first in a new series of albums to be prepared by Minkus Publications of New York City. The new album contains a space for very major variety of stamps from Austria and Bosnia and Herzegovina listed in The New World Wide Stamp Catalog. Fully illustrated, it gives the collector or specialist a suitable home for his collection.

In the established Minkus Publications tradition, the collector can depend on future annual supplements for his album. In addition, its loose-leaf feature enables the advanced collector to add extra pages for highly specialized stamps and covers.

The catalog numbers from The New World Wide Stamp Catalog are included in each stamp space. Printed on one side of the page only, it is a deluxe album, yet is priced at only $4.95, including a gold stamped 2-post binder with attractive dark blue jacket featuring the Austrian coat of arms in gold.

British America and British Europe are scheduled to follow in this series in the immediate future. Other countries will be added later this year. Each album will have a matching page size and border to the already best selling Global albums and will be usable by those collectors wishing to expand a given country in their Global albums. The pages without binder will be available for this purpose. The set for Austria will sell for $2.95.

Collectors may order from their favorite dealers, or from Minkus Publications, Inc., 115 W. 30th St., New York 1, N. Y.

Clifford Shields Head Of Greater Eugene Club

Clifford Shields has been elected the new president of the Greater Eugene, Ore. Stamp Society. Other new officers are Jack Wright, vice president, and Edward Zimmerman, secretary-treasurer.

The group meets on first and third Thursdays at the Lane County Electric Co-op., 1715 Franklin Blvd., Eugene. Interested collectors may contact Gordon R. Fish, 1656 Evergreen Dr., Eugene, Ore. for further details.

You Bet I'm Buying!

Those of you who responded to my ad this time last year shared in the thousands of dollars I paid for foreign and U. S. stocks, collections and accumulations. Since my inventory now is low, again I want to buy anything which offers me a nominal profit.

If you are planning to sell, it will pay you to get my offer now. My favorite sized lots are from $500 to $5000 but if your collection is right for me, gladly accept them smaller or larger.

Informational correspondence is invited so long as you are willing to submit your material on request either with your price or for my firm cash offer. I make no bids without examining the stamps and do not travel except for special circumstances or estate appraisals.

All lots are held intact pending receipt of your acceptance. I am a member of such leading societies as APS, SPA, BIA etc., and am Dun & Bradstreet rated. When I make you an offer you'll know it's for real! — a firm cash deal where you know what you'll get to the penny, with payment made immediately when you okay the price!

Nine out of ten of my offers are accepted, so whether your collection is U.S. or foreign or both — act now by writing or calling me today before my inventory is replenished.

Carl P. Rueth

"Why isn't the POD going to issue a commemorative in honor of Denver's 100th anniversary? Denver, Colorado is the major city in the Rocky Mountain states, the West, and the nation. Its population is near 800,000 making it a major city. We here in the Rocky Mountains are most proud of this city and feel it deserves as much attention as the eastern cities." So writes a lady resident in Wyoming.

I haven't heard but it would seem to me that the folks in Denver would have been on the job for such a stamp, lo, these many months. Having been in Denver and the state of Colorado I can vouch for the hospitality and scenery, both of which in the opinion of our touring family, were tops.

Denver it just as deserving as Pittsburgh, Detroit, Kansas City, New York (which gets a commem all too often) and such others in the category. Stamps for these cities have come in the form of subterfuges such as Gateway To The West, Gateway To The Northwest Territory, et al.

We could include Denver as the Gateway to the Nation's Most Scenic Rock Pile. But there, let the Denverites break loose a few of their rocks and heave them to Washington to rouse the powers to their claim.

1. Excluding the map designs, one of our airmails has a design pertinent to the Rocky Mountain area. Know which, and what?
2. A commem of the last ten years pictured a prominent building situated in Denver, Colo. Name the stamp and the building.

Through the fine cooperation of William H. Maisel, president of the United Postal Stationery Society, 2826 N. Howard St., Baltimore 18, Md. it is possible to print a list of the stamped envelopes which have been revalued in conjunction with the revised postal rates of last August 1.

You will remember that the Post Office Department prepared dies which would surcharge an additional 1c or 2c, depending on the original value, upon the stationery. At the time it was thought that only the very limited different kinds in the current stocks of post offices would be handled. However, obsolete items and Die varieties of current envelopes all found their way to the revaluations centers with the result a large number of varieties exist.

At the moment, Mr. Maisel has learned of 95. Many of you have asked for this information to use as a check list against your personal pursuit of them. This follows after some explanatory wordage.

It should be remembered that the listing under "DIE" refers to the embossing unit from which the envelope stamp is made. These vary somewhat to notable extents and are listed as "A", "I", "B", etc. Code to the other annotations is — "x" is for extra quality paper, watermark is diagonal; "w" is for window front envelope; LB denotes low back envelope.

The first lot listed consists of those which bear the 1c SURCHARGE, and are —

A letter such as the following makes all the work connected with the Design Derby seem very worthwhile, and inspiration, indeed, to keep plugging away. It is from Mrs. Helen Taylor, Clearstream Avenue School, Valley Stream, N.Y., who writes about another member of the faculty—

"Dear Mr. Rueth:

"I am sure it is with pride that any editor is informed that his paper has made a significant contribution to some field of interest. In your specific case, the 11th Annual Design Derby has inspired a school-wide election here at the Clearstream Avenue School.

"Miss Ahlers, our fifth-grade teacher (and a stamp collector as well), saw your contest in Linn's and organized a campaign in school for the enrichment pro-

A VERY VERY SAFE PROPOSITION

If you are about to sell your stamp collection/accumulation your are no doubt faced with the same situation confronting every potential seller.

1) You can send your stamps in to any one of a number of auction houses and take your chances as to when they will be sold and what your net realization will be.

2) You can send them in to dozens of advertisers who are in the buying market and their offers will run the gamut from fair to otherwise. Obviously everybody can't pay "more", "top dollars" etc. and I make no such extravagant claim.

3) You can take your stamps to your favorite dealer and let him buy them from you on the spot. Chances are he will make you a good offer and if you live in a large city where there is such a dealer, this you should do. No need to read the rest of this ad.

4) BUT, if you are like thousands of collectors who live in the country or small town and no "favorite" dealer is available, and you have your doubts about the first two methods of selling—what could be more logical than to have the ultimate buyer come to your home or office. After looking over your lot he can make you a cash offer which you are free to accept or reject.

Most of you have seen my past buying ads, offering to travel almost anywhere in the country to look at stamp lots or dealer stocks. Each trip I make is usually long enough to include a dozen or

Cold Official Figures Build Fire Under Tranquil Life Of Easy-Going "Used" Collector

M. S. Brainard

Usually, I can take the couple dozen letters of the alphabet and make some sort of combinations of 'em that are understandably compatible. But give me nine figures and a nuthin' and, right off, here comes The Bank, saying they're short of money, and please bring 'em down some, personal like, OR ELSE!

Confining myself to a simple repetition of figures perpetrated by H.M.S. concerning sales of the Queen Elizabeth II Coronations develops some interesting sums which could have a bearing on the aspirations of the collectors thereof.

Me? I hanker after items definitely having been used for postal purposes. I shun stamps that are obviously cancelled-to-order and forego "o.g." in fraternal deference to the fanciers of that material. The C.T.O.'s, incidentally, may usually be uncovered by their having a cancellation in one corner only, lightly.

We do not have revealed to us the destinations of stamps sold at the London government offices. It can be assumed they were absorbed by the immediate demand or tucked away to hatch premiums in years to come.

In my ignorance, and to string this story along, I assume a very small portion, if any, of these were destined for postal use. Most of the London sales of Coronations were reported as being around 300,000 copies per integral area, with some variations upward.

When we look at the overseas sales it gives us something upon which we might judge comparative rarity. In a guessing contest, who would hold out for Ceylon's tremendous home sales of 14,896,985 Coronations as against 355,400 sold in London, for a grand total of 15,252,385?

Hong Kong nearly topped that with a sale of 15,240,844 copies, of which 14,906,760 were sold in the Colony and 334,084 sold in Blighty.

Again, surprising figures: three of what we may think lesser stamp using areas, Bechuanaland, Basutoland, and Nyasaland, disposed of an aggregate 3,189,571 in their own countries. Northern Rhodesia sold 697,497, making a total for that block of 3,887,068 items.

Note that Southern Rhodesia didn't go in for the letter rate Coronations but went to a 2/6, peddling 290,658 copies. This figure apparently is the sum of home and overseas sales.

One would justifiably hazard a wager that some of the Malayan states would dip low in the home sales but all of them soared above the half million mark except Perlis, which reported selling only 192,869.

If we are scanning the sales results with an eye toward scarcity of postally used Coronations we will devote most of our attention to Tristan da Cunha, and especially those having distinct and unquestionably legitimate postal use. The Crown Agents reported a total sale of Tristan da Cunha Coronations as being only 296,660 copies. Of these 266,224 were bought in London and 30,436 were sold on the island.

Next in line, for scarcity, would seem to be used Ascension Coronations, 33,011 of them having been sold at that outpost. Pitcairn stands third in line with 34,800 exchanged for cash there. An additional 9,400 of this emission were sold at Fiji.

Then come Montserrat with 38,100, Turks and Caicos, 40,800; and Virgin Islands, 40,860. From there on, the overseas figures rise, as might be expected.

Flirting with the unknown, one may deduct from these figures the C.T.O.'s, stamps eliminated from collectors by uninterested recipients and those tucked away unused. Even the pooh-poohers will just have to admit that a nice, socked-on-the-nose FDC or any other cover of the above items is not to be tossed aside.

This dissertation on modern British philatelic merchandising conjures up another entrancing facet of the hobby: what determines the rarity of each stamp item?

We have injected six conditions of just one series: 1), fresh, o.g., carefully garnered by the trade, most of which will eventually be merchandised; 2), the same stamp category in smaller, individual holdings with questionable destinies; 3), FDC's; 4), C.T.O.'s; 5), used, salvaged from regular postal use; and, 6), those unsaved through disinterest.

It seems that the most rare would be those salvaged from the regular mails. Definitely, from the foregoing, failure to heed published philatelic facts has just practically ruined my stamp collection, seems like.

QEII Collectors In New Specialty Group

The Queen Elizabeth II Commonwealth Collectors Society has been organized by a group of Massachusetts collectors in an effort to bring together the many QEII enthusiasts throughout the country.

Tentative plans call for covering the field thoroughly. All phases of collecting—stamps, covers, postal stationery, booklets, postmarks, and related material—will be included. A monthly journal is being published. The second number, just released, is a 10 - page mimeographed offering of considerable information on the subject.

Plans call for setting up exchange and sales services, and for enlarging the Journal as interest increases. Dues in the group are $2 yearly; interested collectors may write the secretary, Joseph Drozek, 12 Johnson Terr., Saugus, Mass., for full details.

Corvallis Club Sponsors Oregon Cacheted Cover

The Corvallis, Ore. Chapter No. 16 of the Cover Collectors Circuit Club will sponsor a first day cover for the Oregon Statehood stamp February 14. The price is 10c each.

Orders may be sent to Edward Hitchings, 637 N. 14th St., Corvallis, Ore. Overseas members and other collectors may send two International Reply Coupons for each cover desired.

DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Monseigneur Carl F. RUTEN
617 Fair Ave.
SIDNEY
OHIO U.S.A.

EYECATCHING DESIGN FROM BELGIUM. On December 10, Belgium released a 2.50fr. gray commemorative to honor the 10th anniversary of the Declaration of Human Rights. In the center of the well known UN emblem is a baby held aloft by a pair of hands. The inscription as usual appears in the two official languages of the nation. R. Grumiaux, 22 Zegepraalstraat, Borgerhout, Antwerp, Belgium sent the cover.

118-Year-Old Tyrolean Post Office Featured On Austria's "Day Of The Stamp" Commemorative

Dr. Hermine Fruhwirth

As in the past, Austria's philatelists observed the "Day of the Postage Stamp" this year on December 7, the first Sunday in the month. To mark this event, the postal administration of most countries usually issue special postage stamps which, by design or lettering, refer to Postage Stamp Day. Frequently, these stamps are surcharged, and it is the philatelic organizations of the countries concerned that benefit by these surcharges. The funds so raised are used to support many activities intended to promote the idea of philately.

In Austria, festivals marking Postage Stamp Day were held not only in Vienna but also in the provincial capitals and in some of the larger towns of the federal provinces. As these celebrations included stamp exhibitions, the spoken word and the eye appeal of the exhibits combined to familiarize young and old with the purpose and meaning of philately.

It is through the medium of these exhibitions that stamp collectors and laymen are introduced to the manifold aspects of this interesting activity. This sort of object lesson is sure to awaken many new ideas in the minds of stamp collectors.

In creating the special stamp marking this year's Postage Stamp Day, the Austrian designer and the engraver were able to unfold their talent, applying it to the field of miniature graphics. The printer, too, turned his skill to best account, and thus we were presented with another beautiful stamp.

Actually released December 3 and valid for postage from the 6th, it turned out as a 2.40 Shilling plus 60 groschen commemorative in large horizontal format, printed in bright blue. The designer was Stephen Koller, the engraver Georg Wimmer, and printing by the recess process in sheets of 50, by the Austrian State Printing Works. The edition was 900,000.

The motif of the stamp is the newly erected post office building in the resort town of Kitzbuhel, in the Austrian Tyrol. Established 118 years ago, the postal facilities of the little community had been shunted from pillar to post until, finally, twelve years ago plans were projected toward housing the establishment in a building of its own. Ten years later, October 1956, the dream became a reality, and it is a front view of this structure that has now been given philatelic immortality on the new adhesive. Behind the scene is, as usual, a story of romantic progress.

The little town of Kitzbuhel in the Tyrol is well known as a summer holiday resort. However, it has become even more popular as a winter sports center, its international fame being due not in the least place to the many champion skiers the townlet counts among its inhabitants.

It is only for little more than one hundred years that the history of Kitzbuhel has been linked up with the postal service. In its issue of March 29, 1840, the Official Gazette of the Royal & Imperial Supreme Postal Administration decreed under No. 3480/645 (1840) that a postal station was to be opened in "Kitzbühl" on May 1, 1840.

This establishment had to handle ordinary correspondence as well as insured letters and other items eligible for conveyance by mail coaches. Three times a week, mails were exchanged between this station and the post office of St. Johann situated one and a half miles distant.

Thus, May 1, 1840 may rightly be considered as the birthday of Kitzbuhel Post Office. By and by, the office extended its sphere of action. In 1863, telegraph service was opened, and on September 8, 1908, a telephone line linking Wörgl and Kitzbuhel gave the post office and the town access to the public telephone network. The year 1914 saw the inauguration of a post bus line routed from St. Johann via Kitzbuhel to Mittersill.

The gradual increase in the volume of traffic made it necessary for the post office of Kitzbuhel to change its quarters more than once.

Finally, in 1926, it was installed in the County Court building on the main square of the town. There, the post office remained for almost thirty years, even though an acute shortage of space made itself felt as tourist traffic rose in importance.

The community of Kitzbuhel was determined to remedy what after the last war had become an unbearable situation. Therefore, in 1946, it donated a building site for erecting a new post office. This lot was situated between the central part of the town and the railway station.

The first thing to be built was an automatic exchange, of which the technical installations were put into circuit on June 5, 1948. In 1952, planning for the new post office started. In the autumn of 1954, the first sod was cut, and on October 26, 1956, after two years of work carried out under the supervision of Innsbruck Post and Telegraph Directorate, the new building was ready for occupancy.

In addition to several spacious rooms serving postal purposes, with the counter hall in the center, the building houses the automatic exchange, which was considerably enlarged, and provides an adequate number of rooms for the seasonal employees. For the benefit of passengers waiting for the postal buses that stop in front of the post office, a shelter including a call box was erected.

Both the mailing public and the postal employees agree that within the two years the building has been in service, it has proved to be fully up to the mark. Thus then, is told another of philately's interesting recitals of "the story behind the stamp", only this time it is the Stamp Day stamp!

"The Collector's Friend"

STAMP SAVER

WHY TAKE RISKS when you can separate stuck-together or stuck-down mint or used stamps with the SAFE and EASY to use STAMP SAVER.

No Fuss, No Mess — Odor Free and ALWAYS READY FOR INSTANT USE, with practically no care and with no additional expense.

Beautifully made, of clear, durable plastic, the large 5 1/4" STAMP SAVER will accommodate many stamps and is large enough to hold blocks of Twelve Large U. S. Comems or Nine Magaysays.

Transparent telescoped cover fits easily and tightly — Permits you to view your material at all times.

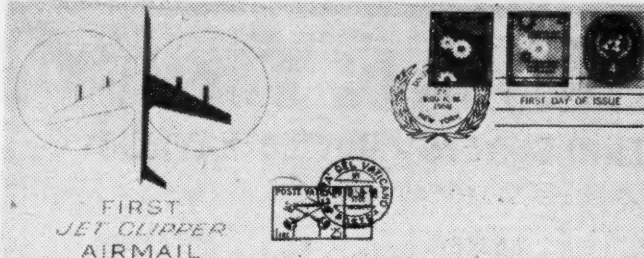

Simple humidity process eliminates "Color Bleeding" problem and saves original gum. Will not harm the most delicate stamps and leaves them looking like new. Truly, a "Collector's Friend".

Try One. You'll wonder how you managed without. Your money refunded immediately if you are not completely satisfied. Complete directions included. Shipped in attractive carton.

S. S. PRODUCTS

463 Hampshire Lane Crystal Lake, Illinois

AN UNUSUAL FIRST DAY, FIRST FLIGHT COMBINATION cover is shown above. It is franked with the October 24 UN Economic and Social Council pair, and flown on the first U. S. jet airmail to France. Regular air service continued it to the Vatican where a 25 Lire Sede Vacante stamp was added for special delivery service. This was canceled October 27, the same day as the Paris arrival backstamp. This unusual item is shown through the courtesy of the Penny Black Stamp Co., New York City.

Another Scottish Island Local Stamp; Report Of Area Group Investigating Canna Emission

David H. Jones

Readers will be aware of the trade inspired Lundy Locals and perhaps to a lesser degree the locals of Herm and Shuna. Within recent months another has appeared on the scene: Canna, a small island in the Scottish Inner Hebridean group, has released a local stamp or label.

It was issued by the Laird of the Isle of Canna, John Lorn Campbell, in blue, green and black. It shows the main feature of the island, Compass Hill and in flight two Manx Shearwaters, seabirds of the puffin

The name of the island is printed in both Gaelic (Eilean Chanaidh) and English. There appears a figure 2 in the bottom corners. A special cancellation was prepared.

The purpose of this issue was not apparent for it was known there was a proper post office on the Island. Seeking further information, the Scottish Postmark Group decided to investigate — with interesting result.

The Laird was contacted and a request made for further information and that in replying his local stamp be applied to the envelope (by law this must not be in the normal position but applied top left, bottom left, or on the back). The letter duly arrived with the local stamp applied in the requisite position.

This, however, was not delivered by normal means. A special messenger arrived with a Demand Note attached to the cover intimating that this be returned to the United Kingdom Postal Authorities for investigation. This was refused as this cover was now a collector's piece.

Within fifteen minutes the Investigating Branch was on the telephone and putting a car at the disposal of the recipient to take the cover to the General Post Office. Ultimately, with the assurance that the cover would be returned intact the Post Office took possession. Investigations are still proceeding. The cover has been returned.

Further information gained is that the design was taken from a photograph supplied by the Laird, with the printing done in Edinburgh by George Waterson & Sons, Ltd., security printers of some Scottish bank notes. This was the first occasion that this firm had printed stamps of this nature although they have produced many charity seals.

For half-tone printing in three colors they made and excellent job and it would not be surprising if they seek to print stamps for some other country at a future date. The printing was to the order of 50,000, only a small proportion having been taken up at the time of writing.

The Laird's own postmark consists of 1/4 inch concentric circle having the name in Gaelic. Also incorporated were two Maltese type crosses. The pertinent question is, what purpose do they serve?

The Laird, of course, is under fire from the Post Office and from his postal point of view he only lays claim for transmission of mail by hand! It is admitted that the labels perhaps have some tourist propaganda value. In any event, it is understood that they are sold locally for 1d each and any profits made are going to the Shipwrecked Mariners Society.

It can be said that this will not develop on the lines of Lundy. The Scottish Coast is dotted with many islands and if officialdom had not stepped in at the outset and others followed suit there would have been a philatelic nightmare!

It is interesting to recall that the official postmark used from the Canna post office is quite illegible on covers so far seen. Further covers were sent out in the hope of obtaining better specimens. However, these have proved equally illegible!

During the course of its investigations, the Scottish Postmark Group has secured various proofs in connection with this item.

This group is a small number of members from the Scottish Philatelic Society who are engaged in research into the history of Scottish postmarks, a somewhat neglected subject. Research has been going on for some three years during which time many thousands of items have been examined and photographed.

The back of this enormous research should be broken within the next twelve months when it is proposed to publish the findings.

Exhibition For Denver In May

The tenth annual Rocky Mountain Philatelic Exhibition will be held May 1-3 at the Shirley-Savoy Hotel, Denver, Colo. The exhibition this year is being held during the 100th anniversary of the "Rush to the Rockies" centennial celebration.

The third and last of the organization's series of cachets featuring the "Old West" will be issued during the event. It will feature the 100th anniversary of the founding of Denver. Complete details of this steel engraved cachet will be announced as soon as possible.

The prospectus and entry blank with all details may be obtained from John H. Willard, 1025 Monroe St., Denver 6, Colo. A limited number of bourse tables will also be available. Entry applications must be in the hands of the secretary by April 20. Certificates of participation will be sent to all who exhibit.

Sponsors of the event are the Denver, Rocky Mountain, Cherrilyn, and Denver Masonic stamp clubs and the Collectors Club of Denver.

Hopewell Club Under Way With 44 Members

The Hopewell, Va. Stamp Club was organized January 14 with 44 members attending. Officers were elected as follows: Donald Livingston, president; Mrs. Virginia Washburn, vice president; Bert Knapp, treasurer; and Mrs. Gertrude Boss, secretary.

The club meets monthly and also issues a news journal, "The Stamp Corner" for each meeting. Mrs. Boss, 705 N. 10th St., Hopewell, is editor. She is well-known to Linn's readers as the contributor of numerous articles during the past few years.

A TINY SPECK IN THE INDIAN OCEAN, Christmas Island is southwest of the Indonesian island of Java and northwest of Australia. It marked October 15 with the issuance of a set of ten regulars which will be replaced in 18-24 months by new definitives. Values are 2c, 4c, 5c, 6c, 8c, 10c (violet, shown above on first day cover), 12c, 20c, 50c, and $1. The common design carries the country name of Australia, with black overprint for the island. This cover was sent by Maj. R. C. Dettman, 27 Marlow St., Wembley, Western Australia.

Christmas Island Control In Singapore-Australia Transfer

Australian Postal Administration

The collector who suddenly finds himself lacking the necessary background material to go with the ten recently overprinted Australian stamps issued for the Christmas Island in the Indian Ocean might well begin by noting the remarks of A. Lennox Boyd, Secretary of State for the Colonies, delivered before the British Parliament June 6, 1957:

"In the light of the new constitutional arrangements now being agreed upon for Singapore, Her Majesty's Government do not consider that they can ask the Singapore Government to continue to administer Christmas Island (which lies in the Indian Ocean some 800 miles south of Singapore) on their behalf.

"Christmas Island has since 1900 been associated for administrative purposes with Singapore. The sole activity on the island is the extraction of phosphates by the Christmas Island Phosphate Commission, which is wholly owned by the Australian and New Zealand Governments.

"Arrangements are accordingly being made to transfer the administration of the island to the Government of Australia, which draws about one-third of its phosphate requirements from the island and is the Government most closely concerned with its administration.

"The island, which should not be confused with Christmas Island in the Pacific, which is the site for the United Kingdom atomic tests, has no indigenous inhabitants as such, the present population being a labor force employed by the Phosphate Commission for working the phosphate deposits.

"The Australian Government have given assurances that British subjects ordinarily resident on the island at the time of transfer and those born there afterwards will enjoy the same rights regarding citizenship and immigration as were extended to the inhabitants of the Cocos Islands when these were transferred to Australia in 1955.

"The Singapore Government have in the past enjoyed certain revenues in respect of the phosphate operations, and Her Majesty's Government are making an ex-gratia payment of 20,000,000 Straits dollars to the Singapore Government to ensure that they do not suffer economically by the transfer. The Australian and New Zealand Governments will reimburse Her Majesty's Government in respect of this payment," Mr. Boyd concluded.

Following this statement, the necessary legislative steps were taken in the Australian and United Kingdom Parliaments and the formal transfer of Christmas Island to Australian administration became effective on and from October 1, 1958.

The island itself is a minute speck in the vast Indian Ocean, some 12 miles by 9 in a roughly quadrilateral shape. The area is about 64 square miles. The location is about 250 miles southwest of the nearest land (Singdanbarang, Java) and 530 slightly north of due east of the Cocos (Keeling) Islands. Australia lies to the south and east, the nearest point being around 800 miles in that general direction.

There are no indigenous inhabitants. The population at the beginning of 1958 was approximately 2650, consisting of 2000 Chinese, 500 Malaysians and 150 Europeans.

The island was discovered and named by Captain William Mynors on Christmas Day, 1643. Possibly the first white man to land on the island was William Dampier in 1688, the same year in which he made his landing on the west coast of Australia. Dampier found Christmas Island completely uninhabited.

In 1886, Capt. Maclear of H.M.S. "Flying Fish" visited Christmas Island and discovered suitable anchorage in a bay he named Flying Fish Cove. In the following year the island was visited by another party from H.M.S. "Egeria", and samples of rock then taken were proved to be almost pure phosphate of lime. As a consequence the British Government annexed the island in 1888 and began to administer it, along with the Straits Settlements, from Singapore.

Shortly afterwards, a settlement was established at Flying Fish Cove by G. Clunies Ross from the Cocos (Keeling) Islands, 530 miles to the westward. Mr. Ross and Sir John Murray were granted a lease to mine the phosphate deposits but found these to be so vast that they sold their interests to the Christmas Island Phosphate Company.

This concern granted in 1891 a 99 years' lease, which in 1949 was transferred to the Australian and New Zealand Governments, who agreed to establish the Christmas Island Phosphate Commission to conduct phosphate extraction operations on their joint behalf.

The island was occupied by the Japanese during World War II. Some attempt was made by them to recover and export phosphate but they were forced to abandon their efforts as a result of Allied attacks upon the phosphate vessels.

to some philatelic authorities). The postage stamps then employed were those of the Straits Settlements. As the only regular communication with the island was by company steamer, the incidence of the mail service was almost wholly dependent upon the itinerary of the phosphate vessels.

The Christmas Island post office had its own postmark, of Malayan pattern, simply inscribed "CHRISTMAS ISLAND". The allied military units on the island during World War II were possibly served by a field post office but particulars thereof have not come to attention.

Following the resumption of phosphate extraction operations after the war, the post office continued to operate under the aegis of the Straits Settlements administration. When distinctive stamps inscribed "SINGAPORE" were issued in 1948 they were then introduced for use on Christmas Island and were not discontinued until replaced by the recent provisional Australian Christmas Island series.

The Austria Philatelic Society of New York, Inc., will celebrate its tenth anniversary with an exhibition at The Collectors' Club, 22 E. 35th St., New York, on Saturday, February 7.

Visitors will be welcome from noon until 6 p.m. The exhibits will be discussed at the society's regular meeting at 8 p.m. on the following Monday, February 9.

Apart from the postmarks which were used during the Straits Settle-and, as a consequence, it was necessary that the stamp denominations be expressed in the same medium. The 1/7d Australian stamp utilized as the basis for the series was modified as necessary.

The ten new stamp were issued at Christmas Island on October 15, 1958. At the same time the post office on the island began using new circular postmarks inscribed around the edge "CHRISTMAS ISLAND - AUSTRALIA" with "INDIAN" (the date) / "OCEAN" in the center. There are two such devices, Nos. 1 and 2. These figures appear at each end of the date line.

To meet the convenience of the local population, it was decided that after the transfer Malayan currency would continue to be used

Denominations of the new provisionals are 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 20, and 50c and $1, these units being the money of the island. It is expected that they will remain in use for 18-24 months, by the end of which time a regular series may be released.

Columbus Exhibition To Open February 28

The annual exhibition and bourse of the Columbus, Ohio Philatelic Club will be held February 28-March 1 in the Southern Hotel. At least 100 frames of stamps will be shown, and a bourse of 17 tables will be in operation. Admission will be free, with hours from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, 10 to 5 Sunday.

The theme of the event will be Abraham Lincoln and his visits to Columbus nearly a century ago. A featured exhibit will be a topical collection, "Lincoln on Stamps". Details of the affair are available from Richard B. Graham, 259 E. Dominion Blvd., Columbus 14.

A striking bicolored cachet is offered at 10c, 6 for 50c, from the Rev. Karl W. Scheufler, 946 Bryden Rd., Columbus 5. The design shows Lincoln speaking from the State House terrace on the day he was given official notification of his election as president, after the electoral ballots had been duly counted.

SPECIAL EDITIONS

Various dealers might want to time some of their advertising to appear in conjunction with the special editions of Linn's Weekly Stamp News sponsored by different specialist groups. These editions are always the last one of each month and contain a splendid amount of information about the particular country or specialty.

The next four editions of a special nature are as follows:—

Feb. 23—Masonic Stamp Club.
Mar. 30—Philatelic Foundation.

Apr. 27—Women's International Stamp Club.
June 29—Scouts On Stamps Society.

Further inquiries can be directed to this paper by interested dealers.

Clubs or societies agreeable to sponsoring a special edition can get the details on request.

Volume I & II, 1959 Edition, (combined) of The New World Wide Postage Stamp Catalog is off the press. This Minkus Publication contains listings of the United States, Possessions and Administrative Areas, United Nations, British Commonwealth of Nations, Central and South America, and the Free Countries of Asia and Africa. It is so up-to-date that stamps issued in October 1958 are listed.

The roll of prominent and informed collectors and groups who contributed their time and knowledge is longer than ever. The editorial staff has done a magnificent job.

A wealth of information is supplied and recognition is given most of the important varieties of interest to collectors of British and Commonwealth, particularly the pricing of color shades and perforation varieties issued during the reign of King George VI. It is an important addition to any philatelic library and is priced at $7.95.

Bermuda — The Crown Agents announce that a special issue of six values 1/2d, 3d, 4d, 8d, 9d, and 1/3 has been ordered for Bermuda from De La Rue, to commemorate the 350th anniversary of the shipwreck of the "sea Adventure" which resulted in the first permanent settlement of Bermuda.

The stamps will be printed by a combination of the recess and lithographic processes in horizontal format on CA (Block Capitals) watermarked paper. The design, prepared by William Harrington of Bermuda features in full color the Elizabeth II each surmounted by coats of arms of James I and Queen Elizabeth II, each surmounted by the appropriate crown. The arms are intertwined with the Garter Cord. Further details will be announced later.

Fiji — A new 4/- value has been ordered from Harrison and Sons, Ltd. The design will include a portrait of Her Majesty and the St. Edward's Crown, and will feature a Kandavu parrot in full color.

The stamps will be printed in mid-night blue, blue, red and green, by the photogravure process in horizontal format. This occasion marks the first time a 4/- value has been placed on a postage stamp, and is the second change for Fiji in the past month: the withdrawal of the 10/- value on December 31 was the first.

Ghana — A set of three commemorative stamps will be issued to honor Abraham Lincoln February 12 and will remain on sale for three weeks. A single design will be used, based on a photograph showing Ghana's Prime Minister, Dr. Kwame Nkrumah standing before the Lincoln memorial in Washington, D. C.

A printed folder, containing a reproduction of the stamps and a significant text, including quotations from Lincoln's writings and speeches, is available free of charge to collectors at the Ghana Philatelic Agency, 91 Wall St., New York 5, N. Y. (Ghana Philatelic Agency).

Turks and Caicos Islands — A special issue of two values, 6d olive black and orange, and 8d violet and orange, has been ordered from De La Rue & Co. to commemorate the introduction of a new constitution in the islands.

The design, common to both values, will include a portrait of Her Majesty and the St. Edward's Crown and will feature a map of the Turks and Caicos Islands with the sun rising over the islands. (Crown Agents)

Briefs — The 15c value of Aden's "Revised Constitution" set, mentioned last week, was overprinted on the new deep blue green shade. Trinidad issued a 15c aerogram December 8, and Barbados a 3c postcard January 15. Postcards for East Africa bearing a 15c stamp in red are due soon. The Federation of Malaya and the Crown Colony of Singapore will invalidate their coronation stamps July 1. Jamaica will invalidate its 1 1/2d, 2d, and 9d George VI stamps September 1.

A World To The Wise — On October 15, 1957 Dominica issued four new definitive stamps. One, the 10c value was a new denomination. The other three, 3c, 5c, and 48c, replaced similar values in the set released October 1, 1954. All four appeared in new colors and new designs. The original stamps, particularly the 48c value are due for a substantial price rise before long.

The desirability of the Queen Elizabeth II set of Nyasaland is recognized. This series was issued September 1, 1953 and withdrawn June 30, 1954 when new stamps appeared for Rhodesia and Nyasaland. The original stamps were perforated 12 LINE.

A fact not so well known is that the 1/2d, 2d, and 6d were specially prepared for coils, but were issued also in sheet form March 8, 1954. They can be distinguished only by the perforation which is 12 x 12 1/4 COMB. These too, were withdrawn June 30, 1954, and thus had a life of less than four months.

gram involving the fourth, fifth and sixth graders. The project includes a panel of all the commemoratives of 1958 mounted in the hall display board. On one side of the display is tally sheet to be used in determining the school's opinion of these issues. On the other side is an envelope with ballots very much like yours, plus a ballot box in which they are to be deposited. Above this display is a large clearly-lettered board with instructions pertaining to Best Design, Worst Design, Most Colorful, etc.

"This program has one objective: to enrich the experiences of the children. In so doing, it increases their knowledge of our history, our postal system, our voting, and stamp collecting as a hobby."

A mention of this activity might easily inspire other teachers (especially those who are philatelists) to conduct similar programs.

"Respectfully,

"Mrs. Helen Taylor"

Have you voted yet? If not please do; time's a-wastin'. A suggestion to clubs — please do not send the results of your voting — send all the individual ballots which helps to provide the true picture of the thinking of the people involved. We have ballots to send to groups if they will mail a stamped addressed envelope for them.

REVISED THIRD EDITION

$105,000 Sales; $35,000 Profit

HOW IT WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

by Alfred B. Fahsing.

At Last! A book that tells you all you need to know to begin and successfully operate a business of your own. This is not a "how to" book: this book tells you in detail HOW WE DID IT. We held nothing back, as you must have all the facts to succeed. Our business is STAMPS — by mail order. From a small beginning on a part-time basis and with practically no capital, this book explains in detail how our mail order stamp business has expanded into its present full time operation and profitable enterprise of more than $105,000. gross sales, and $35,000. profit. This figure is rising rapidly as each mail arrives.

Many days we take $100 from the mail in just a few hours. You can do it too, by following our easy methods. With as little as 100 post cards and a few stamps which you may now have in your collection you can start on your way to $105,000 as soon as you read this fascinating book. Even if you are not a stamp collector or dealer you can easily apply our methods to most any type of mail order business.

Established mail order dealers are buying this book for comparison with their records as our financial statements are included showing expenses, cost and profits. We also include copies of two form letters which alone bring us thousands of extra dollars yearly; a list of 51 of the best wholesale and trade magazines in the U. S.; a list of 63 wholesalers in 32 countries; complete information on how to use mailing lists and buy collections; plus the answers to 56 questions most often asked by stamp dealers.

Why be tied down to a routine job all your life? We will prove in this book that you can set your own hours for work and play and take your vacation WHEN IT SUITS YOU, and best of all BE YOUR OWN BOSS. You can work from a desk in your own home, thus eliminating costly overhead, and you need little or no capital. Your business will grow on its PROFITS. It can be done — WE HAVE DONE IT.

If we had the benefit of such a book when we started, our profits would be even greater, as the trade secrets we reveal cost us thousands of dollars to discover. Here you have the benefit of our experience and you can avoid most of the heartaches and headaches of the "trial and error" method.

Even If you do not intend to become a dealer this book will help you with your stamp collecting. It shows how much profit is made when you buy stamps, and it tells you which stamps not to buy.

For a very limited time we will send you this amazing book for ONLY $2.00. It could change your whole life. The information contained is worth much more, but we are offering it to a few special prospects at the very low price of $2.00. ACT NOW — you will never regret it. Mail the coupon to us today, and of course we guarantee a full refund within 3 days if you are not satisfied.

To: Alfred B. Fahsing, Dept. L6 Atascadero, California

I enclose $2.00 for the revised 3rd edition of your book,

SPECIALISTS IN GERMAN ISSUES have long been intrigued—and not a little puzzled—by the se-tenant and tete-beche combinations available from that nation's uncut sheets of booklet pane emissions. The situation is by no means lessened by the fact that combinations of values are included in some cases, as illustrated by the above display of the 1940 Hindenburg varieties. committee of the Department and the Air Transport Association. (The first domestic jet airmail service began December 10, 1958).

9. Red tape was eliminated as 23,500 local postal forms used in hundreds of post offices were replaced by existing national forms or discontinued altogether.

10. Construction began in fiscal 1958 on 605 new post offices with 2½ million square feet of space, at an estimated private industry construction cost of more than $26 million.

11. A total of 2093 trucks, tractors, trailers, and mailsters was added to the postal vehicle fleet.

12. The accident frequency rate for postal vehicles was cut to 2.05 for each 100,000 miles of driving, compared with 2.24 for 1957 — a drop of 8.44 per cent — while thousands of postal drivers received the National Safety Council Safe Driver Award.

13. The number of postal employee suggestions adopted went up 42 per cent over 1957's total.

Resuming his appraisal of fiscal 1958's relations with the postal picture of the future, Mr. Summerfield summarized:

"While giving full attention to the possibilities, wherever discoverable, of improving the service with the facilities available, the Department has devoted a major share of its attention during 1958 to laying the groundwork for adequate mail service for the generation to come.

"We cannot ignore the fact that, in the 20 years elapsed since 1938, the mail volume has more than doubled, increasing from 26 billion pieces in 1938 to 60 billion in 1958. With this confronting us, we are planning ahead for the increases the public may call upon the Postal Establishment to handle by 1978.

"For this reason, we have been concentrating our attention upon adapting and developing industrial processes and machinery for more speedy handling of the mails.

"To this end we have developed and laid before the Congress a 3-year program for the necessary extensions to our physical plant. When we make these extensions, we plan that they shall suffice to handle the mails 20 years from now."

U.N. AIR MAIL
Feb. 9, United Nations, N. Y.

Scintillating designs, beautiful engravings and only the finest envelopes are featured in Artmaster Covers for the new stamps of the new year.

In '59, as in the past, Artmaster has pledged that nothing but the finest would bear its name. That pledge shall be maintained.

Include Artmaster Covers in your collection for the new year. See for yourself what a difference hand illustrated cachets engraved on 100% rag content envelopes make... they're more attractive and last for years and years... will not fade, discolor or deteriorate.

For the finest, always, choose Artmaster... they cost no more than ordinary covers.

The one cent Lincoln stamp is sold in blocks and plate blocks only. Because of the limited space on the face of the envelope, the NAME, ADDRESS, CITY and STATE must be written in one line at the extreme bottom edge of the envelope. Five cent U.N. Air Mail singles on cards only... envelopes will be used for Pairs, Blocks and Name Blocks.

Two Heuss Regulars Released January 31

On the basis of a new design, created by Eugen Max Cordier after a photograph taken by Frau Liselotte Strelow, Dusseldorf, the West German Bundespost has prepared some values of a new permanent set featuring President Heuss. The inscription originally printed on the margins has been changed on the proposal of the Advisory Committee and now forms an oval.

Under the wood engraving process, the transformation of the picture of the Federal President has been done by wood engraver Willi Seidl, Stuttgart; that of the inscription, by Prof. Eugen Funk, Stuttgart. The design so obtained had to be specially handled by the Federal Printing Office, Berlin, in a manner enabling the stamps to be printed by the special printing machines for stamps.

The first stamps of the revised design — 10 pfennig green and 20pf. red — were released January 31, the 75th birthday anniversary of President Heuss. These values were at the same time issued in the area covered by the Landespostdirektion Berlin, provided, however, with the inscription "Deutsche Bundespost Berlin". The stamps with and without the indication "Berlin" will be valid for use in the Federal Republic as well as in the areas covered by the Landespostdirektion Berlin.

The stamps of the current Heuss set will continue to be valid. The introduction of further values in the new design will be made public at a later date.

Ghana "Diagonal" Due Error Clarified

Recent publicity attending the discovery of the error in the angle of the diagonal on the 1/- Ghana postage due stamp led a New York specialist to check the entire Ghana-Gold Coast postage due field for the frequency of this variety.

His findings indicate that it is constant on all 1/- postage dues of both Gold Coast and Ghana issues, with the entire second vertical row from the right consisting of this more nearly perpendicular mark than those of the other five vertical rows of the sheet in each case. The sheet is 6 x 10 rows in size, so stamps 5, 11, 18, etc. show the variety.

The percentage is one out of every six stamps, there being ten such to each sheet of 60 of the old Gold Coast due, the overprinted variety which appeared about a year ago, and now the current adhesive, according to this examination of the three issues concerned.

Alaska Club Wants 49-Star Flag Stamp

The two most important matters on the agenda of the December meeting of the Gastineau Stamp Club, 104 Front St., Juneau, Alaska were the election of officers and discussing a campaign for a new Flag stamp with 49 stars.

Duly elected officers for 1959 are Ione E. Williams, president; Robert N. Duxman, vice president; Jack Popejoy, treasurer; and Elicabeth Jeffrey, secretary.

The club conducted a large first day project for the January 3 release of the Alaska 7c airmail commemorative, and now plans a propaganda program aimed at obtaining a 49-star Flag stamp, with probably simultaneous first days in both Washington, D. C. and Juneau.

Jugo "Tourists" Depict 9 Centers

Jugoslavia has named February 16 as date of issue for a new set of nine pictorial commemoratives to publicize that number of the country's popular tourist spots. The designs are the work of Djordje Gorbunov of Belgrade, with offset printing by the banknote printing facilities of the same city.

The 70 dinars high value is in three colors, edition 200,000. The rest are bicolors, with 2 million of each of the four lower denominations and one million of each of the remaining quartet. There are two designs each of the 10, 15, 20, and 30d. items. Values colors and designs are:

10d. red and olive yellow, Dubrovnik, medieval city and principal tourist center of Southern Dalmatia; also blue violet and green, Bled, Alpine city and lake in Slovenia.

15d. blue and violet, Postojna, location of caves with natural formations of unusual stalactites and stalagmites in Slovenia; also cobalt blue and greenish blue, Ohrid, a town and lake in the Macedoine region.

20d. green and olive brown, Plitvicka jezera, a lake area in a national park which boasts 16 lakes in series, each at a different level and emptying into its lower neighbor. The section is about 15 miles from Vrhovine in Croatia. Also same value blue and red, Opatija, a tourist and resort spot on the Gulf of Kvarner.

30d. violet and orange yellow, Split, principal city in Dalmatia and important as center of culture, economics and communications; also 30d. violet blue and olive gray, Sveti Stefan, a small island town near Budva.

Finally, 70d. blue, gray and black, the fair buildings in Belgrade.

New Values, Colors For 6 Greek "Arts"

Additional details have been supplied by P. J. Drossos, 1 St. Denys Pl., Athens, Greece concerning the new values and colors of the Greek "Ancient Arts" additions to the 1954 set reported in the January 19 Linn's.

Owing to the urgent postal needs, each value was put into circulation as soon as it was printed; thus each (save one) had a different first day of sale. The festive season postal card demand for stamps had created an unusual and unanticipated demand for low denominations.

Values, designs, first days, and editions are listed by Mr. Drossos as 10 lepta Pericles, 3 million, and 50l. Zeus, 20 million, both on January 12; 20l. oxhead, 6 million, December 29; 70l. charioteer, 10 million, January 2; 1 Drachma youth's head, 6 million, December 27; and 1.50Dr. pitcher bearers, 5 million, January 3. The new colors are not described, other than as being "differt" from their predecessors.

BRITISH COLONIALS

Every two weeks we issue a ten-page list of offers of all classes of British Colonial stamps from Queen Victoria to the present popular Queen Elizabeth issues. Many single stamps are listed which will assist in filling those blank spaces in your collection. Catalogue numbers quoted are from Gibbons and Scott.

Ask to be placed on our mailing list to receive these regularly.

In addition we operate a NEW ISSUE SERVICE for mint and used at a small percentage over cost.

Riverside Collectors Offer Three Cachets

The Riverside, Calif. Stamp and Coin Club is sponsoring a set of three cacheted covers to note the 75th year of the founding of Riverside. The first was canceled August 12, 1958, the first day the slogan was put into use. The second was cancelled on October 1, 1958, the official day of the incorporation of the city.

The last cover was canceled on the last day of the slogan usage. It might be noted that the 1950 California Statehood stamp was used to frank the covers.

These set of three covers is priced at only 50c, three sets for $1.25. They will be mailed under separate cover, and there is no limit to quantity. Remittance must be made in either cash or check; no stamps will be accepted. Orders should be sent to Georges J. Houle, 5819 Clifton Bld., Riverside, Calif.

GHANA "ABE" LINCOLN

A new set of three values honoring Lincoln's 150th Birthday will be issued in Ghana on February 12th. There will be a LIMITED number of Imperforate SOUVENIR SHEETS containing one of each stamp to the sheet. These will be strictly rationed to dealers, and this must be passed on to the collector. To keep the price down, and be fair about the rationing, there will be a limit of one sheet to each 4 regular singles. However, you may order both the mint and FDC in this ratio. Multiple orders of sheets will be taken care of only if the supply received is large enough.

Music On Postage Stamps

Jacques Posell

The lowly postage stamp can do one of two things. It can either deliver your letter (for which use it was actually designed) or it can be put aside to form a collection and thus probably never see postal duty.

The collecting of postage stamps started almost with the advent of the first one issued for universal postage in Great Britain in 1840. From its first beginnings as a queer pastime stamp collecting has become the most universal of hobbies, a source of revenue for a great many countries, and a multimillion-dollar business.

The stamp collector today calls himself a philatelist, a word coined about 1865 by a Frenchman, Georges Herpin, who disliked being called a "timbromaniac" (and probably much else). The word is taken from the Greek "philos" meaning love of, and "ateleia" or "atelus" meaning exemption from payment. The two words were joined into "philatelic" which was later anglicized into "philately".

We have philatelists of various sorts. Some collect every stamp they can get hold of; some limit themselves to one or more countries; others collect only one type of stamp, such as airmails, and still others seek only one given subject pictured on stamps. It is the subject or topical collector, and particularly the topic of music, with which this article is concerned.

Various facets of music have been portrayed on the postage stamps of almost all countries. Composers, violinists, pianists, singers, opera scenes, orchestras, musical notation, musical instruments, national anthems, national music festivals, conservatories, all have been commemorated on stamps. It began in 1922 when Austria issued a set of seven stamps picturing composers.

These were Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Johann Strauss, Hugo Wolf, and Bruckner. Then nothing happened until 1926 when Austria again issued a set this time of six adhesives, depicting scenes from the Niebelungenlied which Wagner used as the basis for his four Ring operas.

To Austria, then, must go the credit for considering music of equal importance to royalty and battle scenes which were practically the only subjects used previously on the stamps of that country.

In 1926 Bach and Beethoven appeared on the stamps of Germany, and soon thereafter composers on stamps became as common as kings, presidents, railroads, and revolutions. The list of world famous composers who have been philatelically honored is very gratifying.

The pioneer seven of Austria have grown to include Wagner, Rossini, Corelli, Rameau, Berlioz, Bellini, Chopin, Weber, and Handel. Also on the roster are D'Indy, Saint-Saens, Rimsky-Korsakov, Tchaikovsky, Smetana, Dvorak, Verdi, Victor Herbert, MacDowell, and many others.

Some of the great ones are still missing from our stamp gallery but will very likely appear at an appropriate anniversary date. These will include Mendelssohn, Brahms, Richard Strauss, Puccini, Ravel, and others great and not-so-greats.

For the lesser lights have also been postally honored. Composers long forgotten, or known only in their respective countries, are also found in a musical stamp collection. Among these of minor brilliance might be listed Karl Millocker of Austria. His claim to fame rests on his operetta Der Betelstudent which at one time played simultaneously in more than 100 theatres all over the world.

There also Karl Zelter might properly be mentioned. A well-known composer and musical organizer in his day, he was for some time Mendelssohn's teacher. It is even said that Goethe preferred Zelter's music to Beethoven's.

Then there was Spontini, whose fame rests on his opera La

Vestale. He became court composer to Friedrich Wilhelm III in Berlin and wrote one of the several German national anthems. Across the Atlantic, another modest figure, Felipe Soto of El Salvador, wrote waltzes.

Josef Schrammel of Austria originated the famous "Schrammel Musik" consisting of a quartet of two violins, an accordion and a zither. For this combination of instruments he composed and arranged music to entertain the patrons of wine gardens in the Viennese suburbs. There is a stamp for almost everybody.

Occasionally a musician is portrayed on a stamp for reasons other than musical fame. Such was the case of Paderewski who appeared on a stamp of Poland in 1919 when he was the premier of that newly formed republic.

Martin Luther, the great Protestant reformer, also took a keen interest in music and its relationship to the church. He was a good flutist and is credited with having written several chorals, the most famous of which is Ein Feste Burg Ist Unser Gott. But he appeared on a stamp of Germany in celebration of the recent Reformation anniversary.

Very few musicians know of Erik Geijer who is shown on a stamp of Sweden. A historian, philosopher, and theologian at Upsala University, he also composed chamber music, piano sonatas and songs.

It is not within the realm of this discourse to list every stamp which pertains to music, but some few items are worthy of special notice. The national anthems of fourteen nations have been commemorated on stamps, either by picturing the composer, or by a musical excerpt, or sometimes both. Music festivals were honored on the stamps of Estonia and Romania.

An Austrian stamp in 1948 commemorated what is probably the world's best known Christmas song, "Silent Night, Holy Night". Another commem was issued by Brazil in 1948 to note that country's National Conservatory of Music in Rio de Janeiro, and a beautiful set of nine was issued by Germany in 1933 depicting scenes from Wagnerian operas.

A new use for postage stamps was recently discovered in Germany when two stamps were issued bearing a charity tax which was used to rebuild the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra. A few years ago Russia issued two stamps picturing the Moscow Opera House, better known now as the Bolshoi Theater.

On one is a large picture of the opera house. The other carries pictures of Mussorgsky, Tchaikovsky, Rimsky-Korsakov, Borodin, and Glinka. This is the only known instance of five composers for the price of one postage stamp.

During the last war, stamps were even issued in the countries occupied by Hitler as a gesture of friendly appeasement. In occupied Czechoslovakia they were issued to honor Dvorak and Smetana, and in Poland one was issued honoring Josef Elsner, the teacher of Chopin and the founder of the Warsaw Conservatory.

The latest figure to appear on the musical horizon is a stamp from Czechoslovakia honoring the famous opera singer Emy Destinn, who was born in Prague and who is known there as Ema Destinnova.

While the quest for the stamp itself is often difficult, finding biographical matter and an original musical quotation to grace the collector's album page often proves a greater challenge. It is quite a simple matter to procure a quotation from Bach or Schubert or Tchaikovsky, but where is one to look for Josef Slavik of Bohemia, famous violinist and composer of another day; or Diapenbrock of Holland; or Soto of El Salvador?

Martin Leopolda, an old church composer of Poland proved a challenge for many years. Menager of Luxembourg, Henrique Oswald of Brazil, and Schrammel of Austria are but a few who posed problems.

One must consult libraries and private collections, and correspond with foreign embassies and legations. And then, when an unsatisfactory answer has finally been received, the quest must begin anew.

The ultimate gain? Perhaps eight bars of music of an obscure, unknown and long forgotten

Stamp Bibliography In New "PL Review"

The "Philatelic Literature Review" just published in its latest issue features Editor Phillip Rochlin's outstanding fourteen-page "Bibliography of Recent General Books on Stamp and Coin Collecting and the Postal Service". The work serves as an excellent guide to acquaint collectors with the available elementary and general literature on these subjects.

Some 150 books are listed in five categories, including titles for all age groups from the primary to the adult reading level. Of special interest are children's books which can be used to introduce the youthful reader to the workings and the history of the Postal Service and of our coins and paper money.

The continuing interest in the famed Pony Express is manifested in the large number of books specifically devoted to that exciting epoch in our postal history.

Since most of the books are in print, the bibliography can be used as a guide for the purchase of gifts or additions to the readers' libraries. Copies are $1 from Phillip Rochlin, 164 Howard Ave., Passaic, N. J.

1959 New Edition Of "Collectors' Annual"

Now available in the State is the 1959 edition of the British "Stamp Collectors' Annual". As in the past, it is edited by Tom Morgan and published by Harris Publications, of London. It is offered in America by Daniel W. Voors, P. O. Box 533, Jamestown, N. Y. at 60c per copy postpaid.

The new edition is in the format and general tenor of earlier volumes. Features include The Gateway of Heavenly Peace, by R. J. Sutton; Violins and Violinists; Around the World by Postmark; Viet Nam; Maybe, A Bloom in Modern British; Best Designs of 1958; Germany in Africa; Philatelic Headlines; World Currency Guide; and a directory of current philatelic periodicals of the world, a total of 98 pages.

U. S. readers will particularly enjoy Mr. Morgan's rating of the world's best and worst designs of the year, and his awarding of a palm and a vegetable from the other end of the scale, to two of our issues of the period. Few readers will be inclined to disagree with him!

Northwest Federation To Convene June 12-14

The Northwest Federation of Stamp Clubs will convene June 12-14 in the Multnomah Hotel, Portland, Ore. with the Oregon Stamp Society of Portland as host club.

Two days earlier the state of Oregon will begin celebrating its centennial, and at the same time the Portland Rose Festival will be staged. The grand floral parade is scheduled for June 13.

The Oregon club invites the philatelic public to attend, and promises entertainment of quality and abundance. Further information will be published from time to time.

Bethlehem, Pa. Stamp Collectors Forming Club

Under the leadership of Robert Woodling, 824 Maple St., Bethlehem, Pa., a number of collectors in the area are organizing a new stamp club.

At the moment everything is tentative, and all collectors in the vicinity are invited to participate and aid in forming a group of the widest possible interest. They may contact Mr. Woodling for further details.

A little oil on troubled waters, philatelic and otherwise, is being applied by postal officials in the British Middle East colony of Aden. There the very small supply of the 50c aerogram of Qati State in Hadhramaut is being held back from public sale and doled out in limited quantities to philatelists only, with no "wholesale" propositions being considered.

Mukalla POD Officials Hold Back Scarce Aerogram Stocks In Friendly Bow To Philately

Bruce Conde
When writing up Hadhramaut post offices in an earlier issue of this paper, I mentioned that after several years effort, I had still been unable to get a single copy of the lone aerogram of one of the Aden states—the Qaiti State in Hadhramaut. It had been "seen" and written up in several postal stationery journals to which I subscribe, but efforts to purchase it at the Aden General Post Office, which regularly sells all Aden and States issues, were not successful. I finally established a philatelic correspondent in the post office of Mukalla, capital of the Qaiti state. Through him I was able to purchase a small supply of the elusive item to use in writing to stateside postal stationery collectors, aero philatelists, and British colonies specialists.

At the time of mailing me the aerograms, my correspondent wrote that the reason the sheets were not available in the Aden GPO was that they were part of a very small supply. There were in fact less than 400 left on hand when he filled my order. Even in Mukalla, they were not regularly sold to all comers for aerograms, but only to philatelically interested patrons who specially requested them. "This is to reserve them for stamp collectors, who will get the most benefit out of them," he said. I got the impression that the PO was not interested in letting any dealer "corner" the supply. Rather, the postmaster preferred to sell them singly or in small lots ranging up to a few dozen copies, in order to give everyone a crack at them. No premium is charged; they are sold at face value, payable in East African shillings. At the same time this article is being dispatched by registered airmail, I am sending one of the Qaiti aerograms under its own power to show a used copy with an added 50c adhesive of the same design and color to pay the supplementary postage, as an illustration. It will be noted that the rather faint cancellation on the item is that of the Aden GPO. This is due to the fact that a local postal union between the Crown Colony and states permits their various stamp issues to be used interchangeably. The Qaiti aerogram is uniform with the 50c blue Queen Elizabeth II Aden Crown Colony type in every detail except the stamp. To the left is the "By Air Mail / par / avion / air letter / aerogramme" inscription in blue. Address lines, instructions for folding and warning about no enclosures, also in blue on blue are of the familiar British and Colonies type. The stamp is Scott's No. 34 of "Qaiti State of Shihr and Mukalla",

The Abdali Sultan of Lahj and Subeih, His Highness Sir Ali Abdul Karim, K.B.E., premier chief of the western protectorate, now in London, but not in connection with the western Aden protectorate federation talks—which he opposes—objects that such stamps make it look as though he is a subordinate chief under the government of Aden. "Whereas, as a matter of fact," he says, "I am an independent sovereign enjoying protectorate treaty relations with Her Majesty's government in the United Kingdom". In vain Sultan Ali pointed out that Tonga has its own royal stamps, without putting "New Zealand" at the top, to indicate that the nearest Commonwealth entity through which Tonga's relations to the British crown are carried out is the dominion in the Pacific. His Highness, whose state was recently occupied by the armed forces of the Governor of Aden; whose Education Minister, Sayed Abdallah al-Jifri, was arrested and exiled to Socotra Island in the Indian Ocean; and whose President of the Legislative Council, Sayed Mohammed Ali al-Jirri was forced to flee to Yemen to escape capture, has weightier problems on his mind nowadays than Lahj's long delayed stamp issue. Five other western protectorate chiefs—Amiri, Fadhli, Audhali, Upper Awalaq, and Beihan—none of them get stamp issues, are also in London to discuss federation plans. These plans are opposed not only by Sultan Ali and other elements throughout the area, but also by Yemen, which claims all the Aden protectorate areas. However, if they are finally carried out, it is more than probable that the western Aden federation will have its distinctive stamp issue. No doubt it would be closely modeled along the lines of the Qaiti stamps of Hadhramaut, so that Aden and States collectors should have some interesting new issues to add to the three entities now represented in their albums.

New Arrangement
In the future, items will be arranged as far as possible in the following order: British Commonwealth, Europe, overseas. With the exception of late information, it is hoped to arrange all items alphabetically by countries under the above headings.

Australia
April 22 - 150th anniversary of Post Office, 4d, color undecided. Design—Isaac Nichols, first postmaster, boarding a vessel in Sydney Harbor to receive the mail.

Bechuanaland
New definitives are planned for 1961, and a design competition closes on March 1. The series will comprise 10 to 14 values, and will include the Royal portrait and usual inscriptions. Format will be the same as the current issue, and any design relevant to Bechuanaland may be submitted.

Bermuda
350th anniversary of first settlement: six values will be released for the 350th anniversary of the shipwreck of the "Sea Venture" which resulted in the first permanent settlement of the islands. The design shows in full color the arms of James I and Queen Elizabeth II, intertwined with the Garter Cord, from a drawing by William Harrington.

Printed by De La Rue in combined recess and litho, background colors are: 1½d, blue, 3d gray, 4d mauve, 8d blue and gray, 9d green, and 1/3 brown.

Cayman Islands
New Constitution—Two values will mark the introduction of a new constitution, and will show the new Arms of the Cayman Islands together with the Royal portrait. Photogravure printed by De La Rue in values of 2½d blue and black and 1/- orange and black.

Fiji
New 4/- value: — A Kandavu parrot together with a portrait of the Queen is the design for the new Fiji definitive which has been produced by Harrisons in four-color photogravure (midnight blue, blue, red, and green).

India
December 30, 1958 - India 1958 exhibition commemorative. A 15 naya Paisa horizontal stamp printed in red purple and showing the main gate of the exhibition currently running in New Delhi was printed in photogravure on the new "Asoka Capital" watermarked paper.

Jamaica
The King George VI 1½d brown, 2d gray and green, and 9d lake definitives will lose their postal validity on September 1, 1963. They can be exchanged during the following six months.

Malaya
Kedah Sultan Installation—Harrison & Sons are printing in four colors (red, yellow, green, and blue) the special 10c stamp to mark the installation of the new Sultan of Kedah. The design shows the Sultan in installation robes, and the crest of Kedah State.

The Malaya States' Coronation issues will be invalidated July 1, and may be exchanged during the following three months.

Sierra Leone
Royal Visit design competition - Winners in the competition were Francis H. Burgess, Portsmouth, and C. P. Rang, London N.W. 3. Two designs were chosen for the four values in this set.

Singapore
The Coronation commemorative will be invalidated on July 1, and can be exchanged during the following three months.

Ceylon
The Human Rights stamps printed by Enschede are in brown and orange (10c) and green and orange (85c).

France
The introduction of the "heavy franc" and the 17½% devaluation of the franc together with the increase in postal rates, will mean that current stamps of France and the French community will be replaced during 1959 and 1960 with values in the new currency. Approximate present rates are: Metropolitan franc, £1 equals 13.75 francs; 1 franc equals 1/6 approximately. Franc C.F.A.: 1 franc equals 3/- approximately. Franc C.F.P.: 1 franc equals 8/3 approximately.

Tunis and Morocco francs have not been devalued, and the rates remain: Tunis, 1 Dinar equals 11.75 francs. Morocco, 1000 francs equal 11-75 francs (Met.).

New definitives: January 6 - 10fr. green, peasant woman: 25fr. red, "Marianne" - probably a revival of the Gandon design which preceded the present Republic type. It is unlikely that the Algiers Arms stamp will be released in the 6fr. denomination originally envisaged. The inland letter rate is now 25fr. (previously 20); foreign letters are 40fr. (previously 35). All these are "old" francs. New precancels in production are 8, 20, 40, and 55fr.; 65c and 1.25fr. values will follow for newspapers.

French Community
A.O.F. (French West Africa)—January 5, flowers pair, 25fr. green, yellow and red, Adenopus; 40fr. yellow and bistre, Cistancia.

Cameroon - January 5, flowers, 20fr. pink, yellow green and green, Randia Malleifera.

Comoros - January 5, flowers, 10fr. vermilion, yellow, green, and blue, Colvillea.

Madagascar Republic - February 3, Independence Proclamation, 15fr., white, red and green flag of Madagascar and map; 25fr., Madagascar flag and constituent assembly headquarters; 45fr., allegory of the French community. Designed and engraved by Decaris; recess printed in Paris. February 2, flowers, 6fr. and 25fr., subjects not yet decided.

New Caledonia—January 1: for Official Mail, small format, letterpress printed, native carvings. (a), Kanaka fetish, carved with lozenge pattern, 1fr. orange yellow, 3fr. emerald, 4fr. violet, 5fr. ultramarine, 9fr. blue black.

(b), Fetish carved with herringbone pattern, 10fr. Parma violet, 13fr. yellow green, 15fr. light blue, 24fr. violet, 26fr. orange red.

(c), Fetish carved with diamonds, 50fr. light green, 100fr. dark brown, 200fr. red brown. All designs by Betemps.

March - New definitives, first section: 1fr. bistre and gray, Brachyurus zebra-fish; 3fr. blue, red and green, Lienardella Fasciata; 10fr. green black, light red, and blue green, Glaucus and Spirograph corals.

Also 26fr., fluorescent corals, blue, orange, brown, and light green; 200fr. airmail, rock bridge at Bourail, light blue, dark green and bistre. Designers: 1fr., 10fr. and 26fr., Gandon; 3fr. and 200fr., Francois.

Polynesia - January 5, flowers, 4fr. yellow, green and blue, Artocarpus (breadfruit).

St. Pierre et Miquelon - January 5, flowers, 5fr. violet, green and yellow, Picea.

T.A.A.F. (Antarctica) - January 5, flowers, 10fr. yellow, jade green and salmon pink, Pringlea.

Togo - February 2, flowers, 5fr. red, green and blue, Bombax, 20fr. yellow, green, blue, and black, Tectona Grandis.

Guinea - January 5, flowers, 10fr., Gloriosa, colors not reported. This stamp has been overprinted with the legend "Republique de Guinee" and bars obliterating the legend "Afrique Occidentale Francaise" and monogram "R.F."

The current 20fr. Banana stamp of West Africa is being surcharged with new value 45 fr.

Germany (East)
January 3: 83rd birthday of President Pieck. Portrait of Pieck, designer, Bengs, photogravure printed by the Graphische Werkstaetten.

Germany (West)
New definitives: The new Heuss definitives appeared on January 31, in the design as described in the November 29 number. The portrait of Heuss was designed by W. Seidel from a photograph by L. Strelow; the design of the stamp was by M. Cordier, with lettering by E. Funk.

Germany (West Berlin)
February 13: Color change, 8pf. definitive (Neukolln Town Hall) in changed color, orange red instead of gray. This change was necessary because the electronic sorting equipment did not react to the pale color of the gray stamps. The previous issue was withdrawn on February 13, but remains valid until further notice.

During 1959, three special Berlin stamps will be released, in the following years, only one special stamp has been authorized per year. The first two values in the new Heuss set were issued on January 31 - 10pf. green, 20pf., red. The equivalent "Berlin Buildings" stamps will be withdrawn on that date.

Poland
December 16, 40th anniversary of foundation of Polish Communist Party. Three hands holding Red Flag. Photogravure printed in violet and red from a design by A. Balcerzak, value 60gr.

Austria
January 15. 1 Schilling definitive, new printing process. The 15. brown Mariazell definitive, originally recess-printed, subsequently reissued letterpress-printed from a wood engraving, will be released in a third printing process, i.e. offset printing. It is not known whether this stamps will be also subsequently produced in photogravure!

Afghanistan
December; Red Crescent issue, 1958. Map of Afghanistan and Red Crescent, 25p., light green and red, issued perf and imperf.

Chile
December, Centenary of the Chilean Savings Bank - 10P. blue, 50P. brown; column and Peso coin, with dollar sign.

Formosa
December 25, tenth anniversary of Constitution: Design, Wen Hsueh-Ju; engraver, Pao Liang-yu recess-printed by the CEPW. 40c deep green (2½ million), 50c purple (2 million); $1.40 crimson (1 m.), $3.50 bronze blue (500,000).

Jordan
December 10, Human Rights Day. Flame, inscription; recess printed by Waterlow: 5f. blue and brown, 15f. black and brown, 35f. mauve and green, 45f. dark green and lake. (Continued on page 25)

Midwest Stamp Show Chicago March 13-15

March 13-15 have been previously announced as the dates for the Sixth Midwest Postage Stamp Show, to be held at the La Salle Hotel, in downtown Chicago. This year, the show theme will be "Stamps in the News". Some very interesting features are planned to coincide with this theme. One of the main attractings will be the fabulous collection formed by Noel Goldblatt, of the well-known Chicago merchandising family.

This collection consists of stamps autographed by famous personages now in the news. The statesmen and rulers represented include Chiang Kai Shek; Nasser of Egypt; President Eisenhower and his cabinet; Presidents Roosevelt, Truman and Hoover; Haile Selassie; Adlai E. Stevenson; Ben Gurion of Israel, and John Foster Dulles.

There will also be a section on famous artists, such as Matisse and Dufy; musicians, Heifetz and Toscannini; authors, Thomas Mann, Toynbee, Sandburg, T. S. Eliot, and many others. This collection, formed over the years, has grown in stature with every change in current events.

The Midwest Postage Stamp Show in the past has attracted thousands of visitors. This year's unusual program and highly interesting theme are expected to draw record crowds at the La Salle Hotel, in Chicago.

All stamp collectors and other interested people are invited to attend for a most informative and entertaining session among stamp collectors and the many dealers, who will have everything possible in stamps on display. Details may be obtained from Anthony C. Russo, general chairman, 31 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago 4, Ill.

Garfield-Perry Club Annual March Party

The members of Garfield-Perry
Stamp Club are planning their 69th Anniversary Celebration, better known as the Annual March Party of Garfield-Perry.

This year's week-end celebration comes March 13-15 at the Hotel Hollenden, Cleveland, Ohio. Opening up with a big social get-together on the evening of March 13 an exhibition of 100 frames of members' competitive exhibits and a 30-table bourse will be featured.

On the 14th a branch philatelic agency of the Cleveland P.O. will be opened, along with an afternoon auction. At 6:30 p.m. the club will hold its annual banquet with entertainment and the presentation of trophies to the exhibition winners.

The exhibits and bourse will open at 11 a.m. on Saturday and close at 10 p.m. Sunday's hours will be 12 noon to 5 p.m. Ralph E. Johnson is general chairman. Any inquiries should be directed to him at 452
Hippodrome Annex Bldg., 715 Prospect Ave., Cleveland 15, Ohio.

The bourse, as usual, is under the direction of N. P. LaGanke, 906
Carnegie Hall Bldg., Cleveland 15.
Persons desiring hotel accommodations should contact Paul T. Skove, 2909 Weymouth Rd., Shaker Heights,
Cleveland 20.

Fundamentals, Maps On Ft. Smith Program

The next meeting of the Ft. Smith,
Ark. Philatelic Society will be held February 2 at the offices of Drs.
Moulton, Lane and McEwen, 1214 North "B" St. The program will include a talk by Col. Leon J. Nu-mainville on "Fundamentals of Philately", the first of a series on this subject.

An added feature will be a discussion by Dr. Everett C. Moulton, Jr., of the different types of map projection demonstrated on postage stamps. All philatelists of the area are welcome to attend. Additional details are available from Mary Nell Euper, 1214 N. "B" St., Ft.
Smith, Ark.

CANTON SHOW

The Canton McKinley Club will hold its annual exhibition and bourse as per usual at the Onesto
Hotel, Canton, Ohio March 21-22.
And as per usual there will be a place for precancel collectors.
Whether a member of the Canton Club or of the Central Ohio Pre-cancel Club, I assure you, you are welcome to this meeting. Come and bring along your precancels.

THREE LETTER TOWNS

If you want a tough little collection of precanceled towns consider those places that just have three letters to their names. George Hawse, 3148 Werk Rd., Cincinnati
11, Ohio is making such a collection and has done some research along that line. He has searched the Town Lists and other records and feels that there are 57 varieties of these three-letter offices.

He wants to call them "THREE-LET", I suggest he call them a HEINZ collection. Anyway he has made a mailing from Rex, Ga. and points out that there is an OPP in Alabama, GLO in Kentucky, DYE in Virginia and IVA in South Carolina which he considers the scarcest.

Here in Ohio we have a NEY.
If enough interest is registered we may be able to persuade Mr. Hawse to give us the complete list and we will print it in Linn's. Write me if interested.

NEGLECTED PRECANCELS

For quite some time after the Presidential series came out there was not much activity in the various cities on local printed precan-cels. Economy maybe decreed that either Bureau prints be used or Handstamps. But as the Presidential series came to a close more cities used either their old discarded electros again or got new ones.

Since the fad in precancels was heavily on Towns and the new Bureaus, not much attention was paid to these older precancels. In this group I claim there are more honest-to-goodness rarities and sound precancels than in much of the so-called "hot stuff" that collectors are chasing.

BULLETIN BOARD

The regular bulletin of the Western Pennsylvania club was mailed with 14c Prexies from North Warren, Pa. in what looks like one of the new rubber types—which by the way some say are being tried out in plastic. Also from the Pennsylvania club comes a season's greetings from Glenshaw, Pa. This is definitely one of the new rubber plates.

The "Southern California Bulletin" was from Temple City, Calif.
this month. The California count is 647 Towns and 1098 Types. The "Nebraska Newsletter" mailed from Bruno, Nebr. The Nebraska count as given in it is 413 Towns and 643 Types. The "Kansas Pre-cancel News" from Tampa, Kans.
on Liberties and in the new rubber type.

The "Precancel Yankee" from North Sutton, N. H. notes that the January meeting was to be on the 25th at Worcester, Mass. Write Bob Briggs, North Orange, Mass. for further details. And you Oregon fans, don't forget about the new Oregon Club. They have great plans and need your help if interested in Oregon precancels. Write Wm. J. Laffery, 5104 S.E. 58th St.,

BNA Members Name Officers, Plan Show

The British North America Philatelic Society has elected officers for 1959 as follows: Vincent G.
Greene, Toronto, president; W. W.
Chadbourne, Wilmington, Del., vice president; Jack Levine, Oxford,
N.C., secretary; and William C.
Peterman, Caldwell, N. J., treasurer. The last two officials succeeded themselves in office.

Membership in the group topped the 1000 mark in 1958 for the first time. Interest is confined to the issues of British North America, but all areas of the field are covered.
The annual convention and exhibi-

TAYLOR GANNETT

114 No. Cleveland Arlington I, Va.

BY AIR MAIL

ETHIOPIA HAS A UNITED NATIONS SET. On December 29, 1958 this nation issued a set of four for the first ECA session at the capital city of Addis Ababa. All the designs are alike in that they show a full length portrait of King Haile Selassie, a map of Africa and the UN emblem. Denominations and colors are 5c yellow green; 20c carmine; 25c blue; 50c violet. James I. Monohon, Kagnev Sta., Asmara, Eritrea, Ethiopia sent the cover.

Offset "Mariazzell" Replaces First Typo

While long a matter of public conjecture, it has finally been officially announced that the typography printed Mariazzell 1 Schilling value of Austria issued June 18, 1957 has been replaced by the same design produced by offset printing, reports Edwin Mueller of New York City. The principal feature is unchanged—the view of the ancient shrine, in brown—but minor details make distinguishing the two printings easy.

The original typographed version shows the names of both the designer (H. Strohofer) and the engraver (G. Wimmer) below the design. Also, the frame of the tablet with the value indication is separated from the design by a white line. In the new, offset product only the name of designer Strohofer appears, and the tablet portion touches the frame of the adhesive.

First day of the new emission was January 15, with validity from the 19th, but it is to be expected that philatelic use will be found from the first date, due to the close resemblance between the two items. Printing, as in the first instance, is by the Austrian State Printing Works in sheets of 100 stamps.

Religion Checklists In "Coros Chronicle"

The Collectors of Religion on Stamps (COROS) have marked their 5th anniversary with the publication of an extra large issue of their magazine, "The COROS Chronicle". Virtually a handbook of Religion on Stamps, the 36-page edition contains three big checklists.

One lists Madonnas and related items on stamps; another over 75 churches of the Italian area, including a two-page stamp map; and a third, over 50 Christian Missionaries and Missions on stamps. A unique feature of the latter two checklists in the inclusion of Minkus catalog numbers as well as Scott's.

In addition, the anniversary issue contains a special tribute to Pope Pius XII by Ernest A. Kehr and other articles of lasting interest, touching on Canada's Xmas stamp, St. Vladimir, an American synagogogue on Israeli postal cards, a Lutheran missionary in Greenland, Israel's new Golden Rule stamp, the Artemis of Ephesus, Girolamo Savonarola, and Austria's Silent Night stamp. The regular new issue column reports latest religious issues and a religious stamp quiz is included.

Extra copies of this special issue may be obtained for 50c each from Mrs. J. E. Jarboe, 2245 6th St., La Verne, Calif. COROS is the oldest topical stamp society in the U.S. and the only one devoted to a single topical. Membership is $3 per year in the U. S., Canada, and Mexico; $3.50 elsewhere; or $20 for life membership. The secretary of the organization is S. N. Steensma, 14848 Marlowe Ave., Detroit 27, Mich.

Czech Philatelic Club Reelects All Officers

The entire slate of 1958 officers of the First Czechoslovak Philatelic Club of America, Chicago, Ill. was reelected for 1959 at the recent business meeting of the group.

Rudolph Severa remains as president; Anton Sidak and Joseph Janscka, Jr., vice presidents; Albert Hoch, treasurer; Vaclav Sana, 5317 W. 24th St., Chicago, secretary and Czech correspondent; and Frank J. Rosner, 2325 S. 61st Ave., Cicero 50, Ill., English correspondent.

An Old Austrian Christmas Custom

Stamp collectors, and especially those with topical leanings, are aware that custom and tradition play a part in the designing of many stamps, and likewise in many phases of life associated with the post office and the handling of mails. One such procedure which has long been a part of the mail system in Austria is recalled by Egon E. Lasus of Toledo, Ohio.

"To give or not to give," he explains, "has for years not been the question as it concerns the postman at Christmas. That nation's post office department has answered that question, in advance and affirmatively, by supplying mail carriers with little booklets of mail regulations and general information plus a cartoon or two, to give to patrons during the Christmas season each year."

The custom, carefully nurtured and encouraged by the mailmen, functions as an automatic request for a present in return—usually cash.

Mr. Lasus was raised in Vienna, and still has a number of these booklets. Early ones were nicely done, with colored covers. Recent editions reflect the ravages of wars and reconstruction.

Always a postman is featured on the cover. That for 1909 depicts a handsome specimen, a then current model delivery truck, and a decidedly more ancient train, all in full color. The 1954 edition shows a typical three-wheel motorized mail delivery cart, its driver in coveralls.

Prospectus Issued For '60 London Show

Plans for the London, England International Stamp Exhibition, to be held July 9-16, 1960 in the Royal Festival Hall, have developed to the point that an elaborate 66-page prospectus in catalog format has been published. It gives full details of the entire plan of the event with information of value to prospective exhibitors.

The various classes and divisions of the display are set forth, and—of interest to U. S. philatelists—the British laws regarding the sending and returning of exhibits are explained. They are by no means unduly restricting.

Exhibition seals are offered in five different colors in sheets of ten, at 35c per set (50 seals) postpaid. They may be ordered from The London International Stamp Exhibition 1960, 41 Devonshire Pl., London, W 1, England.

Stamp Finances Talk At Oxford, Ohio Club

The Miami Stamp Club, a newly organized group on the campus of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, will have Dr. Howard G. Schultz, professor of economics at Xavier University, Cincinnati, as guest speaker at the February 10 meeting. He will speak on "Stamps: Investment or Speculation."

The meeting will be held in Room 239, The University Center, Spring Street, Oxford. Anyone interested is welcome to attend. The club meets regularly on second and fourth Tuesdays.

Plans are being made for an exhibition and bourse to be held June 5-7 in connection with the first day of issue of the 12c Benjamin Harris stamp in Oxford on June 6. Miami University will be celebrating her sesquicentennial at this time also.

Anyone desiring further information about the club or the exhibition may contact Alfred Pocock, Stoddard Hall, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

North Toronto Show Planned March 21-22

The 16th annual exhibition of the North Toronto Stamp Club (CPS Chapter 5) will be held March 21 (1:30 to 10 p.m.) and 22 (1:30 to 5) at the North Toronto Memorial Gardens, 180 Englewood Ave., West, Toronto Ont. Admission is free.

Long recognized as one of Canada's principal annual philatelic events, the North Toronto exhibition will feature a number of outstanding entries, both competitive and non-competitive.

Visitors on Saturday will have the opportunity to meet one of Canada's best known philatelist, Douglas Patrick, whose CBC Stamp Club of the Air is perhaps radio's best known stamp feature. His program has been on the nationwide network for nine years. There will be a bourse of Toronto area dealers.

Dealer ★ ★ ★ Doings

Dealers in French issues will find the new wholesale price list issued by Paulette Newmann, 575 Riverside Dr., New York 31, N.Y. filled with tempting offers from No. 155 to date with mint quoted per 1, and used per 10, excepting a few of the better used numbers which are also listed per 1. She also has buying and selling offers on used U.S. and packet goods.

First day cover enthusiasts are referred to the January 26 ad of the Washington Cover Exchange, Newark, N.J., offering lot coverage on the new 1959 commems with Artcraft covers. They are requested to note that the price for singles is $4.05, and not the slightly lower figure which is incorrectly shown in that particular ad. The 1c Lincoln is due February 12.

Definitely the most unusual price list of stamps seen in a long time is that offered by classified advertiser Ludwig J. Bergh, 2902 N. 28th St., Tacoma 7, Wash. It is illustrated with actual stamps, and offers choice singles as well as sets and collections. Copies are free on request, for a stamped, addressed envelope. Approvals sent only if requested.

The Mint Sheet Co., long established dealers at 276 W. 43rd St., New York 36, N.Y. puts out an interesting offer sheet to dealers, investors and quantity buyers. It lists much unusual material as well as the more common, generally in quantity. Dealers and others with a yen to buy in quantity at the lowest possible prices should write the firm for copies.

If it's Israel postal paper, covers or related material of collector interest, The Negev Stamp Co., 55 W. 42nd St., New York 36, N.Y. very probably has it—and at a competitive price. The firm also offers choice Ghana, Brussels, Europa,

Expert Warns Against "Islas Galapagos"

That the recently issued "Islas Galapagos" triangular green stamp from Ecuador, in the value of 2 Sucres, is not a legitimate item is the stern warning being broadcast by Dr. Roberto Levi-Castillo, philatelic expert of P. O. Box 3606, Guayaquil, Ecuador. "... it is a 'BOGUS stamp,'" he stated flatly. Continuing, he explained, "It has not been legally issued and a few were flown in a trial flight of the company L. I. A. to give legality... it is not a government issue... and not licensed for use in correspondence in Ecuador."

"The perpetrators of this scheme did not dare use the country name 'Ecuador' in the design, but, rather, depend on the initials 'R. del E.' to deceive their intended victims." These alleged stamps were produced without any legal procedure, and at the time of his writing none had been sold in Ecuador even for philatelic purposes, he detailed. The entire project is a private undertaking by certain native and foreign dealers, aimed at the lush North American market, according to this on-the-scene expert informant.

New Cachet Series By Chicago Scouts

A new series of Boy Scout Week cachet covers is being sponsored by the Explorer Post 2486, BSA, of Chicago. This year's series is projected as a set of one-color cachets, featuring the new Explorer emblem, and franked with the Forest Conservation stamp.

Scout Week cover number one is listed for February 8, with others to be announced as scheduled. The price is 10c each; collectors may send address labels if desired, otherwise penciled addresses will be inscribed. Orders may be sent to Explorer Vincent Busam, 5656 S. Paulina St., Chicago 36, Ill.

Due to the elements of time and distance involved, collectors are urged to forward their orders via airmail, to avoid disappointment.

IGY, and other special fields, all on the same basis, along with Israeli coins. Interested stampers should request the new list.

A suggestion comes from Gerson's Stamp Store, 373 S. W. Morrison St., Portland 4, Ore. that collectors interested in the QEII Royal Visit stamps take a second look at the firm's ad in the January 19 Linn's. A misplaced decimal point has the figure there just ten times too high—correctly, the 13 values for the 1954 event should have been priced at $1.50.
